North America Telugu Society (NATS)

has conducted a tournament for "NATS Cup Cricket 2014 Orlando" in Orlando FL on Sunday April 6th 2014 at University of Central Florida Sports Grounds. This tournament has received tremendous response from enthusiastic cricket fans from all over Orlando. Eighteen teams have participated in this tournament and put a spectacular show of cricket.

The teams were divided into two groups Group

A and Group B and competed in the leagues followed by two Semi Finals, a third place and a Grand Final.

The severe heat of Sun didn't disturb the spirit of the game; the players showed great patience and stayed all day along to play the games. NATS Executive committee representative Sai Yerrapragada welcomed the teams and the guest of the event Indrasen Kasireddy of Southern Realty Enterprises officially opened the tournament by playing a couple of balls bowled by Prasad Kasi.

Each team played with some nail biting finishes and showing good sportsmanship and spirit of cricket. After challenging league matches, UCF Eagles, Sachindians, UCF Nightmares and Lake Nona Lions reached semifinals. First Semi Final match played between UCF Eagles and Sachindians was a very close game and Sachindians won the game. Second Semi Final match played between UCF Nightmares and Lake Nona Lions was put up by some spectacular massive sixes and fours and Sachindians won the game. The grand final was fought between UCF Nightmares and Sachindians in which UCF Nightmares emerged as victorious. The players also competed for Best Batsman and Best Bowler awards Rajesh from Sachindians team won the Best Batsman award and Melon John from UCF Nightmares team won the Best Bowler award.

Sai Yerrapragada explained the services that NATS is doing across the globe and thanked the umpires and the volunteers who have dedicated themselves to provide an excellent service to the tournament. He also thanked the sponsors and players for successfully conducting the event.

Local Telugu community leaders Dr. Santharam Nallamshetty and Srinivasarao Katakam were kind enough to grace the occasion and awarded the trophies to the players and the umpires.

NATS Cup Cricket 2014 Winner and Runner up Trophies, Individual trophies for the finalists also Best Batsman, Best Bowler trophies and plaques for the umpires are sponsored by Dr. Vasudev Nalipireddy of Melbourne FL.

NATS applauded the services of Satya Mantena who coordinated this every by putting tremendous effort and also thanked Prasad Kasi, Manmohan Puliya and Rajesh Kesineni for their continuous support.
