

In a meeting held on June 29, 2009, NATS Executive Board decided to hold its second biennial conference "America Telugu Sambaralu-2011" in New Jersey / Philadelphia. NATS members are in search of a suitable conference venue in and around New Jersey. 2011 NATS conference will be conducted during the Independence Day weekend July 1 -3.

The population of Telugu speaking people in the US is fast increasing. With the presence of Telugu people everywhere, New Jersey is one such place where the immediate impact of this phenomenon is felt and undoubtedly will be the great venue for this wonderful event.

NATS team is pleased about its progress and preparations for the 2009 conference, which is about to start in two days with a gala banquet on July 2nd 2009. Several thousand people have registered for the conference and guests from all over North America are arriving in Orlando, FL. NATS team is upbeat with the overwhelming response of the Telugu community to America Telugu Sambaralu.

This press release is issued by NATS President Ranakumar Nadella, NATS board of directors Dr. Madhu Korrapati and Ravi Madala.
